Tenant Relocation Policy – Developer FOIPPA Compliance Acknowledgement

The District of North Vancouver’s Residential Tenant Relocation Assistance Policy (RTRAP) requires landlords to collect tenants’ personal information to assist them to find new, comparable rental accommodations. Landlords must handle tenants’ personal information in compliance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIPPA). Adhering to the below privacy procedures will ensure compliance with the requirements of FOIPPA.

Collection: The RTRAP collects the following personal information through the Residential Tenant Relocation Assistance Plan form (the “Plan”) and the Tenant Household Needs Assessment form (THNA): tenant name, unit address, unit type, number of occupants, monthly rent, length of tenancy, and household needs or characteristics (e.g. parking, pets, accessibility). Helping tenants find new, comparable rental accommodations is the only purpose for collecting their personal information. This purpose complies with section 26(c) of FOIPPA which states that personal information may be collected where “the information relates directly to and is necessary for a program or activity of the public body”. Tenants’ personal information cannot be used for any other purposes.

Use: Tenants’ personal information must, per section 32(a) of FOIPPA, only be used “for the purpose for which that information was obtained or compiled, or for a use consistent with that purpose (see section 34)”. Section 34 provides that a use is consistent if it has a “reasonable and direct connection to that purpose.” Accordingly, tenants’ personal information can only be used for the purposes of the RTRAP program.

Disclosure: FOIPPA sets out the circumstances under which personal information may be disclosed and that it can only be disclosed to individuals inside Canada. The tenants’ personal information can only be disclosed “for the purpose for which it was obtained or compiled, or a use consistent with that purpose” (section 33.2(a)). In other words, disclosure is only to those who require it in order to perform work that “relates directly to and is necessary for” (section 26) delivering the assistance available under RTRAP (e.g. on a “Need to Know” basis).

Accuracy: FOIPPA requires that “every reasonable effort” be made to ensure personal information is accurate and complete (section 28). When a tenant completes the THNA form, they need to review the personal information they provide to confirm it is correct. It is important to double check for accuracy when transcribing from the form to Appendix A of The Plan.

Correction: Per FOIPPA, tenants can request to review and correct their personal information at any time up to one year after the decision is implemented regarding the assistance they received under RTRAP. The landlord will provide the access.

Protection: Every reasonable effort must be made to protect tenant information from unauthorized collection, use, disclosure, access, or premature destruction. This includes password protecting tenant information, keeping it separate from other information, keeping it in one location, limiting access (e.g. “Need to Know” basis), and not sharing it as unencrypted data. These are all reasonable security efforts.

Storage and Access: FOIPPA requires that the tenants’ personal information be stored and accessed only from within Canada. Storing it on a cloud service provider, even one in Canada, is still likely to allow access from the US. Keeping it in a secure electronic folder with only one person with access is the most FOIPPA compliant.

Retention: Personal information is only kept for as long as it is operationally required. Under FOIPPA it can only be kept for one year after a decision has been made and implemented regarding the assistance a tenant is eligible for under RTRAP. After that, tenant correspondence must be securely destroyed so they cannot be reconstituted and the personal information in Appendix A of The Plan must be aggregated so that specific individuals cannot be identified in the future.

I have read and understand my responsibilities with regard to compliance with FOIPPA as explained above.
