Attachment A

THE MANDATE

An understanding and appreciation of our social, cultural, artistic, political and economic history is an essential and necessary component of the fabric of our community life. The Councils of the City, and District, therefore, mandate the Commission to develop and maintain an appropriate level of museum and archives services, in accordance with commonly accepted standards, to meet the needs and interests of public bodies, corporations and organizations doing business in North Vancouver and private citizens living in the two municipalities.

MEETING THE MANDATE

In fulfillment of the Mandate, the Commission shall strive to provide services to the people of North Vancouver in accord with the following:

The Commission shall maintain and develop collections that reflect the social, political and economic history of North Vancouver. It is charged with the responsibility of seeing to the safe-keeping of all materials entrusted to its care and shall manage the collections in accordance with a Collections Policy amended as necessary from time to time and approved by both Councils.

The Commission shall provide access to archival resources and museum exhibits and programs for periods of time each week and at hours of the day that may best serve the interests of the citizens of North Vancouver.

The Commission shall be aware of and, whenever practical, work with other public bodies or private citizens involved or interested in the provision of museum and archives services, to harmonize its efforts with the plans and programs of other such providers so that all plans and programs can complement each other.

The Commission shall be aware of the changing needs of the community, and of the practice of museum and archives work. Both short and long term plans shall be developed to accommodate these changes and shall be submitted to the Councils of the City and District for approval within the context of ongoing annual operating and capital budgets.
